

Town of Underhill Citizen Board & Commission Vacancies

Vacancies exist on some of the appointed Town of Underhill Boards and Commissions. These are rewarding positions that allow you to make a contribution to your Town, now and tomorrow.

- Planning Commission (1)
- Development Review Board (2 Alternates)
- Recreation Committee (1)
- Energy Committee (2)

The Planning Commission is a 9-member body charged with long-range planning for the Town, coordinating studies related to land development, and the preparation and amendment of the Town Plan and Unified Land Use and Development Regulations.

The Development Review Board is a 7-member board, with 3 Alternates, whose main function is development review, including: Subdivisions and Planned Unit Developments, Conditional Uses, Waivers and Variances, Certain right-of-way/access applications and Site Plan Review

The Recreation Committee is a 5-member body tasked with creating and maintaining recreation opportunities for our community members. If you have kids or are a kid at heart, then consider joining the Recreation Committee as they work towards making Underhill an even more fun place to live!

The Energy Committee is a 7-member body charged with making recommendations about reducing energy consumption in Town assets, providing a public forum/education related to the reduction of energy consumption, and engaging in fundraising – to include grant applications.

Appointments to these positions bodies are made by the Underhill Selectboard.

If you have any questions and to make application, please submit a cover letter and a resume to Brian Bigelow, Town Administrator, Underhill Town Hall, PO Box 120, Underhill, VT 05489; or electronically at bbigelow@underhillvt.gov
