

There is the touch of November air, chill enough to have a slight tang, like properly aged cider. Not air that caresses, nor yet air that nips. Air that makes one breathe deeply and think of spring water and walk briskly. The clarity of November air, on such a day, is crystalline; it has kind of magic, bringing the hilltops closer by day, the stars closer by night.

from
Hall Borland's Twelve Moons of the Year

Please check out these interesting articles below:

**Forest Wisdom, Mother Trees and the Science of Community**

**Why insects are so crucial to life on earth - VIDEO**

**Climate Change FAQ's**

**Why you Don't Need to Rake Leaves**

**Hawks and Humans Article**

EDUCATION SERIES

The Underhill Conservation Commission is committed to public education and seeks to help our residents learn more about Underhill's natural resources and natural communities. More info on the 2023 Education Series is at THIS LINK.

Members

Name		4 Year Term Contact
Karen McKnight	Chair	2025
Betsy Chapek	Vice-Chair	2026
Laurie Graham	Secretary	2027
Patrick Lamphere	Member	2025
Trinity Schroeter	Member	2027
Vacant
Vacant
Vacant
Vacant

View PDF